“If everything around seems dark, look again, you may be the light.” - Rumi

Current data on youth trafficking and sexual exploitation in Orange County are staggering, with 50% of victims being under the age of 18. As a faith community, there is more work to be done to protect our young people. At this gathering:

Speaker Dr. Sandie Morgan

Executive Director, Global Center for Women and Justice

- Learn how the church and faith community can respond together
- Walk through identification, intervention and prevention activity
- Discuss OCHTTF's 2025 Victim Report and impacts in Orange County
- Meet Shyima Hall – first child labor trafficking survivor in Orange County

Learned together in 6-part series in 2025:

- Human Trafficking 101 & Internet Safety
- Foster Care & Vulnerable Children
- Understanding Trauma & Boundaries
- Building Trusted People & Communities
- Father Figures & Addressing Demand
