

Orange County Human Trafficking Task Force presents a community and youth awareness event

National Human Trafficking Prevention Month KNOW MORE, DO BETTER 2.0

When: Wednesday, January 31, 2024
10:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m.

Where: Vanguard University, 55 Fair Dr, Costa Mesa, 92626
Free parking across street at OC Fair & Event Center lot via Fair Dr

What: Align with California Healthy Youth Act requiring schools to provide all students with comprehensive sexual health and prevention education. Create a positive space for social engagement and prevention education around human trafficking and sexual exploitation. Female minor victims of sex trafficking make up the 2nd largest population of all HT victims.

Who: Collaboration of 35 government and community resources. Local OC Survivor and Youth Specialist with Orangewood's Project C.H.O.I.C.E., Martha Trujillo will be a Keynote Speaker. Additional special guests include survivor advocates, Odessa Perkins, Jenna McKaye and Brianna Moseley, who helped pass into law Human Trafficking of a Minor to the list of serious crimes and making it a strike offense under California law effective January 1, 2024.

NOTICE: Event is full. All 500 seats are reserved for the 7th and 8th grade students in Orange County attending. Any community and public attendance to this event will need to stand.
